

THEOLOGY ON TAP DENVER

Engaging the Culture The year of St. Paul

Thursday, September 25

JIM BECKMAN

"Staying Spiritually Grounded in a Fast-Paced World"

Jim has more than 20 years experience in youth ministry in various levels of leadership on both the parish and national level. He is the founder of ImpactCenter which ministers to youth ministers. Recognized nationally, he is a dynamic and passionate speaker who has reached hundreds of thousands of young people over the years.

Sunday, October 26 - 3:00-4:30pm

WILLIAM PORTILLO

"Amazing Grace: Gangster to Youth Minister"

Come hear one of the most amazing journey's of faith you've ever heard...from hard core gang leader, to a conversion in solitary confinement, to youth minister and founder of a gang rehabilitation program in L.A. We were only able to get William on a Sunday afternoon, but his story is so amazing we had to schedule Theology on Tap around him.

Friday, November 21

FR. KEVIN AUGUSTYN

"How Christianity formed the Western World and how we're forgetting who we are."

Originally from Fort Wayne, Indiana, Fr. Kevin was ordained a priest in Denver in May 2004. He now serves as the pastor of St. Thomas Aquinas Parish and director of campus ministry for CU Boulder.

Friday, December 12

BISHOP CONLEY

"Heart Speaks to Heart – Engaging friends, family, and co-workers with the Gospel Message"

Bishop Conley is a convert to Catholicism. He served as a priest for 23 years before his Episcopal Ordination, including 10 years of service to the Holy Father as an official in the Vatican Congregation for Bishops in Rome. Pope Benedict XVI appointed him auxiliary bishop of Denver on April 10, 2008. Bishop Conley has chosen as his episcopal motto, "Heart speaks to heart."
